

WESTSEITE

M. H. B. B.

Architectural drawing of a building facade, oriented vertically. The drawing shows a two-story structure. The upper story features a balcony with a railing, supported by several columns. The balcony has a decorative, possibly wrought-iron, railing. The lower story is a solid wall with vertical lines, suggesting a brick or stone facade. There are several windows on the upper story, some with decorative elements above them. The drawing is a line drawing with some shading. There are some faint markings and lines around the drawing, possibly indicating a section or a specific view.
